

The December 2009 Creative Junior was Tina Gorter (9). Tina loves horses and being creative. She nominated herself and explained to us in an email that the whole merhorse idea started one day at school with a friend of hers who loves dolphins. Tina has already been drawing a series of merhorses and thought a Christmas one would be a good addition. Her latest project is making a clay horse.

Christmas Merhorse by Tina Gorter (9)